Sun Life Financial Benefit Account: FAQs

The Sun Life Financial Benefit Account is an interest-bearing account established in your name. It is one of Sun Life Financial's methods of payment for life insurance benefit proceeds. The full amount of your life insurance proceeds is available to you at any time. If you elect the Sun Life Financial Benefit Account, any policy settlement options will not be available. You will receive your own Sun Life Financial Benefit Account Confirmation certificate, which is the supplemental contract for this account, and a draft book, which is similar to a check book. We refer to drafts as checks in these materials. Drafts are similar to checks with some differences; for example, drafts may not credit your bank account as quickly as checks, and drafts may not be accepted by certain retailers.

You can access your proceeds immediately by writing a check. You will also receive monthly statements listing all checks written, the interest credited to your account, any interest rate changes, and any special services that have been requested. (See special fees below.)

This account, which is an obligation of the Sun Life Financial insurance company that issued the life insurance policy, is a secure place for these insurance proceeds.

How does my account work?

You will soon receive a welcome package with a Sun Life Financial Benefit Account opening statement and a supply of checks. You may write a check for the full amount of your account balance at any time or keep all or some of these proceeds in the interest-bearing account. Checks drawn on your Sun Life Financial Benefit Account are payable through BNY Mellon.

How is interest determined and credited?

Interest is earned on proceeds in your Sun Life Financial Benefit Account from the date your account is established until the date checks are cleared. Interest is compounded daily and is credited to your account once a month. We determine the interest rate, at our sole discretion, and may change it periodically. There is no minimum interest rate. (The current rate may be found at http://www.sunlife.com/us/Service+center/How+do+I/Employee+benefits?vgnLocale=en CA). Interest income is reflected in your monthly statement.

We may derive income, in addition to fees charged on the Sun Life Financial Benefit Account, from the investment of the balance of funds in the retained asset account.

Are there any special fees?

We provide you with your first set of checks and free checking services. You will be charged for any special services as follows:

- $15 for each stop payment order $5 for requests for check copies
- $10 for insufficient funds $25 for a check book rush request
- $2.35 for a check book reorder $10 for statement copies

What if I have questions about my account?

Please call our Customer Service Center at 866-223-9149. You also can call this number to request any of the special services listed above.

Is there a minimum check amount?

The minimum amount for which a check may be written on your Sun Life Financial Benefit Account is $250.

Is there a limit on the number of checks I can write?

No, there is no limit.

Can I make deposits into the account?

No, deposits cannot be made into the Sun Life Financial Benefit Account.

How can I keep track of my account?

Each month you will receive a statement listing all checks written, the interest credited to your account, any interest rate changes, and any special services that have been requested.

Is my account subject to unclaimed property laws?

Yes. Your account has been established as the result of payment of your life insurance proceeds and, therefore, continues to be subject to the applicable laws for unclaimed property.

Sun Life Financial monitors the activity on all accounts. If there has been no activity on an account for two years, we will attempt to contact the account owner of record at that time. It is important that you respond to this letter should you receive one.

Sun Life Financial Benefit Account: FAQs continued

Is my account insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)?

No. Your account is not insured by the FDIC. Your account is an obligation of the insurance company that issued the life insurance policy and is backed by it.

How can I reorder checks?

An order form for an additional supply of checks will be included in your welcome package.

Can I designate a beneficiary for the proceeds of this account?

Yes. The package will include a form to designate a beneficiary to whom the proceeds remaining in the account will be payable in the event of your death. If no beneficiary is named, the proceeds will be payable to your estate.

What if my address changes?

Any change of address needs to be communicated in writing. You can use the change of address form included in the package or send a written notice to our Customer Service Department.

Can I stop payment on a check?

Yes. You may order a stop payment by calling our Customer Service Center at 866-223-9149. There is a $15 charge for each stop payment.

Can I request copies of cancelled checks?

If you need a copy of a check, call our Customer Service Center at 866-223-9149. We will send copies of checks to you as soon as possible. There is a $5 charge for each copy.

How is the interest earned on my account reported to the IRS?

At the end of each year, we generate an IRS Form 1099 indicating the annual interest credited to the account. We then send the form to you and to the IRS. You may wish to consult a tax, investment, or other financial adviser regarding tax liability and investment options.

How can I close my account?

You can close your account in one of three ways:

- Simply write a check in the amount of the balance indicated on your most recent statement and bring it to your local bank. Because interest is accrued daily, it may be difficult to know the exact balance. We will send a check containing any remaining interest within 30 days.
- Send a written request to Sun Life Financial Benefit Account, Insurance Services, P.O. Box 535412, Pittsburgh, PA 15253-5412, indicating that you wish to close the account. Please be sure to include your account number. We will mail a check for the full account balance including interest posted to that day.
- Let the balance of the account fall below $250. At the end of each month, accounts with $250 or less are automatically closed. We will send the balance in the account plus accrued interest to you.

Note: The National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) advises that you can contact the National Organization of Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Associations (www.nolhga.com – 703-481-5206) to learn more about coverage and limitations for retained asset accounts by State Guaranty Associations. For further Information, you may also contact your State Department of Insurance. Louisiana residents may write to Louisiana Department of Insurance, 1702 N. Third Street, P.O. Box 94214, Baton Rouge, LA 70802 or call 1-800-259-5300.
